Niki Lauda Maurice Hamilton 2020-07-16 'Grondig en aangrijpend [...] een passend eerbetoon.' The Sunday Times In 1975 werd Lauda bij Ferrari voor het eerst wereldkampioen. Het jaar daarop was hij goed op weg om zijn titel te verdedigen toen hij op 1 augustus betrokken raakte bij een gruwelijke crash op de Nürburgring. Zwaargewond werd hij opgenomen in het ziekenhuis en er werd gevreesd voor zijn leven. Opmerkelijk genoeg verscheen hij zes weken later alweer aan de start, vastbesloten om te laten zien dat hij terug kon keren op zijn oude niveau. In de jaren die volgden reed hij voor verschillende teams en wist hij nog twee keer de wereldtitel te veroveren. Maurice Hamilton, die Niki Lauda voor het eerst ontmoette in 1971, schetst het opmerkelijke verhaal van een van de grootste sterren in de geschiedenis van de Formule 1. Gebaseerd op interviews met Lauda zelf, zijn vrienden en familie, rivaliserende rijders en degenen met wie hij later in zijn carrière samenwerkte, is deze biografie van Niki Lauda een uitstekend en definitief eerbetoon aan de icoon die afgelopen jaar op zeventigjarige leeftijd overleed. Met een voorwoord van Nico Rosberg.

Off-Road with Clarkson, Hammond and May Phillipa Sage 2021-05-13 'Amazing adventures. Apparently I was there.' Richard Hammond For over 12 years Phillipa Sage worked alongside Jeremy Clarkson, Richard Hammond and James May as their PA, gofer, and fixer where she saw the boys at their best and, hilariously, at their worst. A closet petrol head, Phillipa started working in the motor industry on live events over 20 years ago and first worked with Jeremy Clarkson in 1997. She proved to be a loyal, trusted friend and colleague to all the presenters—from back in the beginning with Tiff Needell, Vicki Butler-Henderson and Quentin Wilson—to the now infamous trio of Clarkson, Hammond and May, and was a key member of what became known as 'The Bubble', the exclusive, dysfunctional working family that toured the world. With an enormous budget, they travelled like rock stars—with super cars, yachts, private jets, helicopters, and five-star wining and dining—taking their unique brand of motoring madness to 18 countries, 31 cities and to over 2 million fans in arenas and at festivals from New Zealand to Norway. Supported by a large crew and their personal entourage, Clarkson, Hammond and May, when not performing in their extraordinary, high octane, live action, motoring theatre, indulged in extravagant holidays. They and their 'Bubble' family relaxed in luxury resorts or private houses entertaining themselves with pool parties, drinking, heli-sightseeing, drinking, private motorboat cruises, drinking, jet skiing, sailing, drinking and eating, and drinking. In Off-Road with Clarkson, Hammond & May, Phillipa shares the tour highs, lows and laughter of three clever, funny, and very stupid motoring journalists.

Runways & Racers Terry O'Neil 2011-05-19 Runways and Racers concentrates on the short transitional period, 1952-1954, for sports car racing in America following the ban on public road racing in many of the States. The ban left the rapidly expanding Sports Car Club of America with a problem: where to hold races. At precisely the same time, Curtis LeMay, head of Strategic Air Command, was having problems obtaining funds from Congress to improve conditions on the many air bases located around the country. The solution was a marriage of convenience, whereby the SCCA was allowed access to active SAC air bases to hold its race programmes. In return, the SAC base would receive the net profits from the event, which would be put into the Airmen's Living Improvement Fund. As a result of some initial financial success for the SAC bases, the scheme was also adopted by non-SAC bases together with regional clubs, with the same agreement in place. Complaints from airmen alerted Congressman Errett Scrivner to potential irregularities, and he ordered an audit to be conducted to ascertain precisely what it was costing the air bases to host the races. His findings led to the cessation of the races, ordered by Congress. The product of a long period of extensive research by the author, this book gives a fascinating insight into this two-year period, complemented by over 150 period pictures, many previously unpublished.

Northeast American Sports Car Races 1950-1959 Terry O'Neil 2010-10-15 This book focuses on the different aspects that contributed to the development of Northeast American sports car racing during the 1950s. The evolution from amateur drivers racing on public roads in 1950, to both professional and amateur drivers racing at private, purpose-built tracks in 1959, demanded huge leaps of faith, trust and understanding. The transition was neither easy nor uneventful for drivers, clubs or track owners, and the tragedy, politics and intrigue that came to characterize the period are covered here in fascinating detail.

Lopen met de Kenianen Adharanand Finn 2012-04-25 Net als zoveel andere hardlopers verwonderde de Britse schrijver en hardloper Adharanand Finn zich erover dat Keniaanse atleten, waar ter wereld ze ook lopen, de wedstrijden overheersen. Anders dan al die andere hardlopers besloot hij op zoek te gaan naar het antwoord. Hij trok met zijn gezin naar Kenia om daar ruim een half jaar te verblijven en met de Kenianen te gaan lopen. Hij sprak de atleten, de trainers, hoorde de verhalen aan van de plaatselijke bevolking en zag hoe ze leefden - in de professionele trainingskampen in Eldoret, maar ook in door armoede geteisterde gebieden waar hardlooptalent een uitweg kan bieden uit een kansloze omgeving. Hij hield er een veelgelezen weblog op de website van The Guardian over bij/em. Finn contrasteert zijn bevindingen met de ervaringen die hij als loper in eigen land heeft opgedaan. Het Keniaanse hardlopen is een van de grote - nog goeddeels ongeschreven - verhalen in de sport. In dit boek wordt dat verhaal voor het eerst verteld.
